

Press release

Antibes, June 21 st 2010

The Château Saint-Martin & Spa and the Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc launch simultaneously their own fragrance « L'Eau de Vence » and « L'Eau d'Eden-Roc ».

Being part of the prestigious Oetker Hotel Collection, the two hotels run by Philippe Perd, Managing Director, reinforce their synergy at the heart of a common project.

Properties of excellence and luxury, they naturally desire to offer a sophisticated product as high as the requirement of their guests.

Isabelle Burdel, professional perfumer who created the perfume atelier "Salon Privé", created a fragrance in harmony of the identity of each property, leaving a unique olfactory memory to their visitors.

The soul of the château Saint-Martin & Spa, its sophisticated greatness and discreet charm can be found in the unique olfactory signature « L'Eau de Vence », rich in natural green and woody touch. This perfume is composed by an harmonious blend of Provencal fragrances, from the lavender to tarragon, with fig, blackcurrant leaf and nuts... a return to the origins with a touch of modernity.

« L'Eau d'Eden-Roc », a high quality and exclusive fragrance dedicated to the legendary hotel in Cap d'Antibes, associate the particular nuances of bergamot, green grass, Ylang of the Comoros and ginger which bring freshness with slightly spicy touch. The amber touch and the white musk make the base soft and protective. Total immersion in a paradise world...

Two unique and complementary fragrances, to offer or indulge itself, "L'Eau de Vence" and "L'Eau d'Eden-Roc" are available in the shop of each hotel for an amount of 95 €.
